6 Definitions

Admission is the process for admitting an applicant into a course at the AIE Institute, following a successful application and acceptance of the offer of a place in the course.

Census Date is the date when a student's enrolment is finalised. If a student withdraws after the census date he/she will have to pay fees, or if the student has a FEE-HELP loan, will incur a debt.

Course is a single course leading to an Australian higher education award.

Credit transfer is a process that provides students with agreed and consistent credit outcomes for components of a qualification based on identified equivalence in content and learning outcomes between matched qualifications (Australian Qualifications Framework definition).

Domestic Student is an Australian citizen, Australian permanent resident or a New Zealand citizen.

International Student means a person (whether within or outside Australia) who holds a student visa as defined by the ESOS Act, but does not include students of a kind prescribed in the ESOS Regulations.

Letter of Offer is the offer of a place in a course to a successful applicant.

Overseas student see International student.

Payment Date is the official date when payment is required.

Recognition of prior learning (RPL) is a process used to assess an individual's relevant prior learning (including formal, informal and non-formal learning) to determine the credit that may be granted towards completion of a qualification (adapted from Australian Qualifications Framework definition).

Start Date is the official date that the teaching period of a unit commences.

Tuition Fee is the fee for enrolment in a course determined by AIE Institute, and advised in both the International Student Enrolment Form, and the Letter of Offer attached to the International Student Enrolment Form, as being the tuition fees for the course (per semester).

Unit is a discrete unit of study, where a combination of units makes up a course of study.
